Directions to the Home Comfort Warehouse Showroom

54 Bridge Street, White River Junction, Vermont

The HCW is located at 54 Bridge Street, which is physically just off Bridge Street in White River Junction, behind the Main Street Museum.

White River Junction is easily accessible via I-89, I-91 and Route 5!

IF TRAVELING NORTH ON I-91:

Take Exit 11 for "White River Junction". Proceed straight ahead through the traffic light and continue down the hill keeping to your right following the signs for White River Junction. At the first stop sign, turn left. Go under the railroad underpass and turn left into our driveway which is directly opposite "Railroad Row." If you cross over the White River, you've gone too far.

IF TRAVELING SOUTH on I-91:

Take Exit 11 - "White River Junction". Turn left at the end of the exit ramp and proceed straight ahead through the traffic light and continue down the hill keeping to your right following the signs for White River Junction. At the first stop sign, turn left. Go under the railroad underpass and turn left into our driveway which is directly opposite "Railroad Row." If you cross over the White River, you've gone too far.
